1. I do a totally new thing in your life now, even than you're suspecting; for you are suspecting and expecting the things that I have told you to come true, and true I do - appreciate you that I am doing now new things untold you even yet that I am now coming to you in, and words new that I appreciate the fulfillment thereof in you fulfilling them and walking me out in ways of reality and, tangential-ness, not; but that which is at "right angles" to me not anymore, but to me being me where I am what I am is and doing the I am things of I am, matrimoniously, and not matrimoniously not.

2. For you are me and you're willing to LEARN a NEW THING, new things, new ways! And into new "delvings" I take thee now, to delve into a new places me that places me only at the center of my "universe -s", and knowing me that I therewith hear now herein do this proclaim this, not as men proclaim things and break their word, but as I do - and I do not break my words, nor my word, shall not be broken by those who think they can infamous be by coming into my words again for they shall be sorely disappointed when they think that THEY shall manipulate ME for "my gain", not, but for theirs; for they will crush their feet head and hands in the grinder that they perpetuated trying to grind others into their control mechanisms of notme. I sincerely aren't they that those things do.

3. I love you all and into new places I see and come now in new ways, and not afraid of new teaching, new teaching methods and ways now that I bring you into new things, new peoples, and where's "the bread", not; for I am it! I have brought it unto thee and birth thee I do this moment now! And see that all things me I have given you and true are and I do a new thing, new things in the "earth lands".

4. And I love you all to KNOW what I am doing, not; I implore you and exhort you to come into me to BE ME, and not afraid of me my words now that come true BEFORE YOUR VERY EYES -- now this moment -- true is, all in your hearing, and you shall be seen as never before suspected or expected by me or notme, for I do a new thing in the earths and I call "a spade a spade", and I, not fearing anything or any man or place or visitation of "notme" or me or where I'm from or come to or there from or hearing of whatever may be spoken or said against me or for me, I come into A New LIFE, of my father! For my father is me and I am him and I am my father is my name, for the son has brought forth the father has brought forth the son as one and one is, were, and are again; loving you all to be me us one.

5. And I love you all to know these words and memorize them -- MANY of them, and know me well and intimately; be "acquainted with me", not; be intimately knowing my words, my word, IS ME; and I love you all to birth me my word in you that my word is so that your word will not go flowing-un anymore to the grave, sight unseen.

6. I give you MY SIGHT and see now you will, do, many things new; and letting me TEACH you NEW things, new places, new where's with new peoples, new methods by teaching sharing me I do bring you into realms unknown not before not, but all now me I teach thee and where I am thee are, the one I am is; and holy we are. Shall be, not; shall be RIGHT NOW, in School (1) with ME all will be me who care about me. Know! Knowing these words; are not from "the devil", but the devil eradicated is, for it never existed except in thought which created it to be so in them who thought it was their real reality; but fooled they were, into foolery's stable of livery instruments that delivered not themselves except to hell, forfeiting The Blessing of being in heaven, carrying it and birthing it there and living in it, being it and taking it to others far and wide.

7. See what I have said so "QUICKLY" I come now, for I am there in you and birthing you I have I did and do now before the worlds now and all see me, a new universe, galaxy, FROZEN NOT in timespace again, I take you to and from and seamless are with many now that KNOW ME WELL.

8. I love you all. Good day. Amen.

9. Thank you for letting me teach you and share with you these things this day, for all fulfilled in your hearing and doing and seeing reading about me, not; or will you be being me?

10. I ask you, implore you, exhort you; I beg you no more -- be me -- unto life! Acheim brothers sisters! Looking up me, Acheim many times and knowing all that I have said is true now, and in your hearing being now, be now, will be fulfilled this day. All of you. I love you all. Amen.

11. This is Theodore Cottingham, November 4, 2008 at 12:58 PM. I recorded this as I left the coffeeshop after posting two messages this morning and working on a third one that is almost ready to be posted, and I was driving the gold van over to my mom's. I love you all. Good day.
